The WJS Book Swap!

Do you love reading? Running out of books at home? Worried you'll have nothing to read for the next few terms?

Come along to our Book Swap 3.15 to 4.00 on Thursday 5th March in the Hall.

This is how it works:

- Look for a book you've grown out of at home (or one which you've got two copies of).
- Make sure it's in good condition so someone will want it in return.
- Bring it into school the week beginning Monday 2nd March and hand it in to Mrs Williams in the studio between 8:35 and 8:45.
- In exchange for your book, you'll be given a ticket which you should bring with you after school on Thursday 5th March.
- Browse the books on display and when you find one you like, take it to the check-out desk and hand over your ticket.

It's that simple!

FAQs

Can I bring more than one book?

Yes, you can. Each book you bring will entitle you to 1 ticket. We suggest no more than 5.

I'll have my younger brothers/sisters/cousins/friends with me after school. Can they come too?

Certainly; they can bring a book to swap, or listen to a story while you choose.

Is it too late if I bring my book on the day?

No, that's fine.

Looking forward to seeing you on the day!
