The wolf knocks on the door and pretends to be Red. Granny lets him in and the wolf ties up Granny and puts her in the wardrobe.	By now, the wolf could hear Red's footsteps; he was acting as if he was a headless chicken flapping around. Suddenly, he thought "why not do something nice? Surely being bad is more me." But that's what the wolf did. He was always misjudged as the bad guy so he would try being the good guy for once.
Red arrives at the cottage and finds the wolf in bed, dressed as Granny.	As Red approached the wolf decided to open the door for her and in return Red gave him a cupcake. The wolf realised he was always gonna be the villain so he changed his mind and decided he would eat them all up (including the cakes). Later that day a lumberjack came and the
