Number 1 was to kill the Nemean Lion
He slayed it and left without crying
Number 2 was to kill the snakelike Hydra
He chopped off its heads and sent them to china
Three he had to capture the Ceryneian Hind
But Artemis demanded that he was kind
Now came the fourth with the Erymanthian Boar
He did that too but there was still lots more
Five was to clean the Augean stables
The roof, floors, doors and tables
Next was to kill the Stymphalian Birds
Scared them out of their nests without a word
Seven he captured the Cretan Bull
And he dragged it to Crete with his hands full
Then to capture the Horses of Diomedes
Hercules began to become proud of his good deeds
Ninth came with taking the Girdle of the Amazon Queen
It was as easy as taking a farmers favourite bean
Number 10 was to capture the Cattle of Geryon
After that he was tired but he just had to carry on 11th he had to take the Golden Apples of the Hesperides
They were nearly as golden as the house of Midas.
Finally he was to capture Cerberus

Without introduction that hound is murderous
Those are the 12 labours of Hercules.
