

Design:

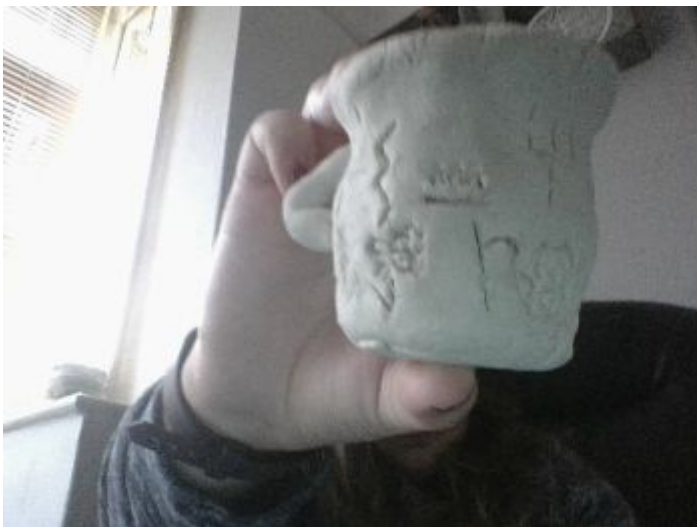

This is my design. The picture on the pot shows one of the minor gods, iris, the goddess of rainbows.

After being made:

But I decided to change the design because the original design was too tricky so instead I used a toothpick to carve all the gods and goddesses symbols of power.

The inside is a bit cracked but it still holds water.