Learning today for life tomorrow

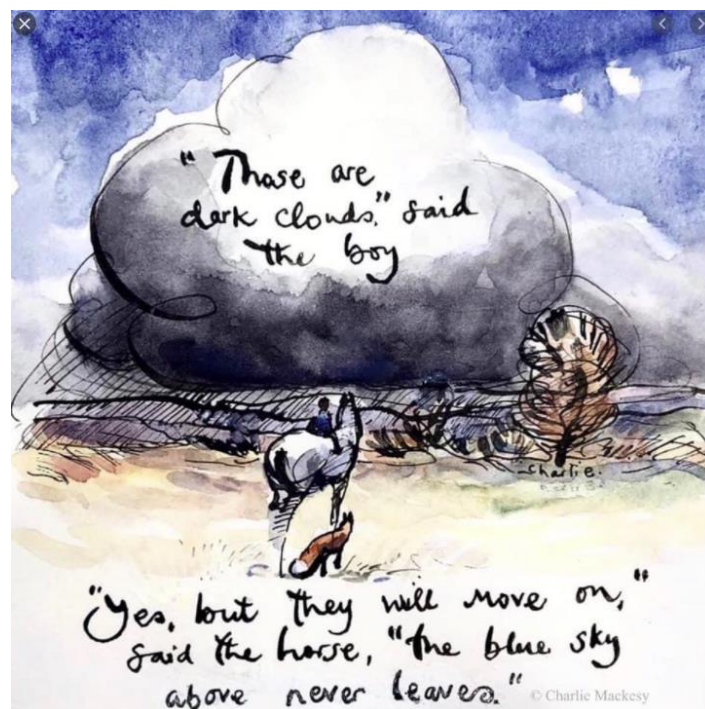

Week ending 29th January 2021

A message from the headteacher...

Dear Parents and Carers,

A short newsletter today because I have sent a lengthy update earlier this week. However, I wanted to send a quick message to you all to say; hang on in there, you're doing brilliantly, there is light at the end of the tunnel and it won't always be this way. I'm not just talking about home-learning but I know that this is a huge task too. I hope VJS have gone some way to making this more manageable for you. I also mean that in these darkest months and with everything as it is, we can all feel overwhelmed. I love the Charlie Mackesy drawings and quotes so sharing one of these seems an apt way to finish the week.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend,
Warmest regards,
Annie Knoupe

WJS Remote Learning Survey...

We would really like your feedback about the remote learning we are providing. Here is a link to this survey. It should take no more than a few minutes. The survey link will close at midnight on 7th

February. VJS Remote Learning Survey

Headteacher Award...

Congratulations to Lacey in 6H for working incredibly hard in Google Classrooms and being a fabulous member of the community.

Letters

Don't forget you can find all the letters we email out to you saved on the school website.
