Dear Parent/Carer,

Our Platinum Jubilee Elevenes Celebration Picnic

Just a reminder, as shared on the newsletter before half term, in celebration of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee we are asking the children to come dressed in either red, white and blue or dressed up for "Elevenes" on Friday 10th June.

At 11 o'clock all the children will go onto the playground to sit with their class and "partake" in some scrumptious treats and cordial.

Your child's class teacher will have let you know what wonderful delights they would like you to contribute.

As well as this, they will complete a fun orienteering quiz about the Queen's life, jive-line dancing, making birthday cards and they have already completed an amazing art display which has been decorating a shop window in the High Street.

So please could you:

-send your child in with a picnic blanket, rug or something similar to sit on

-check with your child what snack they need to bring in

Please do not forget our amazing PTFA Jubilee Summer Fair which is also taking place on Friday. It starts at 3:15pm and finishes at 4:30pm and will be full of amazing stalls, lots of great prizes and fun activities. Don't forget to buy your raffle tickets!!

Warm regards,

Annie Knoupe
