

Narrative – Blue

Non-Fiction – Green

Poetry – Purple

Term	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5	Term 6
Overriding Topic	Rivers	Natural Disasters	Shang Dynasty	Modern China	Romans	Anglo-Saxons
Genres Covered for Assessment	Narrative story writing Poetry S&L	Descriptive Writing Dialogue Extracts News Report writing Explanation Text Poetry S&L	Prediction Persuasive letter Diary entry Character description Visitor guide	Narrative myth writing Poetry writing	Character description Prediction Dialogue Drama Debate	Non-chronological report Persuasive writing Recount Narrative story writing Fantasy Predictions inference
Rich Texts	Wind in the Willows – Kenneth Graham  The River – Valerie Bloom	Hurricane – David Wiesner  Quakes, Floods and Other Disasters – Fred Martin  Poems Aloud – Joseph Coelho	The Magic Paintbrush – Julian Donaldson  Shang Dynasty China – Great Civilisations 	Chinese myths and legends  My First Book of Haiku Poems 	Thieves of Ostia – Caroline Lawrence  Escape From Pompeii – Christina Balit 	Beowulf – Michael Morpurgo  Grandpa's Garden – Stella Fry

			The Shang Dynasty of Ancient China – The History Detectives
Writing Opportunities	Summarising key events Planning a story Narrative story writing Editing story Writing dialogue	Recounting part of a story Weather plane report Planning a fantasy Writing a poem in the style of Morpurgo Non-chron robin report	A letter persuading toys to return the army general. Fantasy story about spirit animals. Predicting what will happen next in a story Visitor guide – children create their own visitor guide for Shang Dynasty era China.	Narrative myth writing Haiku Poetry	Prediction – predicting a plot line. Persuasive letter to stop slavery. Diary entry – a recount or summary of the day from a chosen character	Debate – debating who should be the new ruler of England during 1066. Public speaking also involved. Dialogue – lots of drama to scaffold speech writing. Recount of worm
New Grammar Skills	Fronted adverbials New rules of speech – new speaker, new line and punctuating correctly using inverted commas	Apostrophes for possession including singular and regular plurals Present perfect tense ISPACE Rules for speech Punctuation	Prepositions Compound sentences Compact sentences Comma after fronted adverbials.	Imperative verbs Time adverbials Formal and informal writing Progressive/continuous verbs including past perfect continuous. Preposition and adverb openers with commas including knowing the difference	Omissive apostrophe It's or its Specific determiners Use of pronouns for cohesion and to avoid repetition. Starting sentence and drop in 'ing verbs	Plural possession apostrophe Conjunctions Summarising Paragraphs Modal verbs Power of three using commas or coordinating conjunction
Revised Grammar Skills	Changing verbs for effect. Adverbs to describe verbs Expanded noun phrases Inverted commas Command sentences Imperative verbs	Apostrophes for omission Prepositions Bullet points Headings/sub-headings Paragraphs	Summarising Rules for speech conjunctions	Subheadings Adverbs Verbs	Speech Plural possession Expanded noun phrases	Rules for speech Fronted adverbials Repetition to persuade

Vocabulary to be Introduced	Source, tributary, meander, mudflats, erosion, currents, downriver, mouth (river), spring (water), valley, upriver	Barrage, boisterous, catastrophic, chaos, collapse, consume, deluge, destruction, devastation, evacuation, explosion, fiasco, hazard, monsoon, natural phenomenon	Shang, dynasty, emperor, slaves, merchant, Fu Hao, tomb, bones, dragon bones, farmer, artefacts, archaeologist, plough fields, paddy, China, ancient, priest, warrior, hypothetical, terracotta warriors, museum	Myth, legend, emperor, jade, dragon, villager, guardian, lucky, auspicious, inauspicious, Quilin, tiger, lantern	Romans, Julius Caesar, warriors, centurion, slave, thieves, shield, testudo, formation, barrier, defence, fight, battle, invade, conquest, conquer, Pompeii, escape, Italy, Rome	Anglo-Saxon, Jutes, Angles, Saxons, enraged, artefact, synonym, weapon, Normans, divine right, divine, moral and battle.
Key words from Y3/4 Spelling List	busy, caught, centre, complete, different, disappear, early, forward/forwards, heart, increase, length, natural, possible, pressure, straight, strength, through Adjectives ending in -ed	answer, appear, arrive, believe, breath, breathe, build, centre, circle, , material, natural, naughty, often, peculiar, position, pressure, recent, remember, special, strange, surprise Verbs and nouns ending in 'y' change to 'i' and add -es	Reign, separate, purpose, promise, potatoes, belief, build, business, mention, natural, medicine, guide, perhaps, special, straight, strength, various, caught Comparative and superlative adjectives ending in 'y' e.g. happy, happier, happiest.	Consider, library, knowledge, remember, suppose, surprise, recent, regular, heard, forwards, experience and disappear. Proper nouns: people, places, titles, months, days, languages	Although, business, difficult, decide, enough, caught, perhaps, reign, occasion, therefore, favourite, natural, often, question and various Antonyms of words using prefixes im-, in-, ir-, il-	Knowledge, interest, important, century, experience, possession, though, therefore, strength, weight, woman, occasion, occasionally, calendar, learn, fruit, difficult, different, early, actual, actually, reign Plural nouns words ending in 'o'
Opportunities for Outdoor Learning	Plotting the river journey outside in chalk Visiting local water sites – Canterbury trip Acting out powerful verbs	Weather watching	Paint brushes out side Re-enact a battle as the terracotta warriors	Chinese New Year Dragon Dance.	Testudo formation as a year group School trip to Roman museum in Canterbury	